Whippet Whispers Special Edition NCWFA @ The National by the Rover Reporter

The NCWFA Gang did great on their "road trip" to San Diego for the AWC National Specialty...

The week began with ASFA lure coursing & Carson (Erynn Lucas) began his march toward Triathlon glory by placing NBQ in his stake. Freddie (Marrianne Lu) was also NBQ in his veteran stake.

At the Rally Trial on Monday, Bruce (Marrianne Lu) was a super star, winning his class & finishing his RA title!

Carson (Erynn Lucas) showed that the secret to success is obviously to not start training until five weeks before the event, he won his Pre-Novice A obedience class, with a score of 194.5 & went on to win the coveted "High Score in the Non-Regular Classes" award & won a really neat chair (see the back cover)! Carson was also third in Triathlon conformation & then covered himself with glory by winning Second Place in the Triathlon (coursing/obedience/conformation). Carson was actually tied for first, but lost the run-off. Carson also enabled his fan club to sit at the awards dinner with the biggest challenge trophy of all, the JRR Trophy, which he won by being the highest scoring dog in the Triathlon, also shown in the regular classes at the show. Great job Carson!!!!

The big Club conformation winners of the week were Cache (Julie Nunes), who was third in the big Open Dog class, Peaches (Charlotte & Martha Fielder) who won fourth in a huge Bred by Exhibitor bitch class, Dixie (Erin Campbell), who was second in 12-15 bitches, Maya (Erin Campbell), who won both her Veteran Sweeps & Regular Veteran class & also won the gigantic Brood Bitch Class, as well, Baillie (Debby Knutson), who was third in Altered bitches, and Nick (Brad Briscoe) who was fourth Award of Merit in a class of almost 100 champions! Good going gang! Lots of other Club whippets made cuts in the super big classes throughout the show, and making a cut is almost as big of an honor as placing. Congrats to all!

Jean Balint was the esteemed judge for the Veteran Sweepstakes & she looked great and did a stellar job judging all the beautiful senior whippets!

The NCWFA also covered itself in glory on the hospitality front at the National. We hosted the Hospitality suite on Wednesday & knocked that out of the park. Our Wine & Cheese reception later on Wednesday was the biggest hit of the week, with over 30 bottles of wine consumed in two hours & the whole event was SRO. If there was a fire marshal at the hotel we would have been shut down! Our California Basket for the Basket Auction raised the most money of all the entrants ($320) & new member Che Rivera's 'painted whippet' (Geisha) made the most money in that auction, as well. Well done!

Having the most fun & earning the award of "most photographed" were Gracie Mae & Nigel (Jen Haas). This dynamic duo didn't participate in any of the events at the National, but they were at ringside rooting on their friends every day & their appearance in the ballroom in their cart was the hit of the show!

All in all, a super fun week was had in San Diego by the NCWFA Gang!

Editor's Note -

As you probably have noticed by now, if you are reading this at home, holding a printed copy of SPEED in hand, this issue is coming to you in glorious black and white. Donna Wilhoyte, who printed SPEED in color for almost ten years, has left her job with Fruitridge Printing for greener pastures, so our run of color newsletters are at an end. Donna was able to print SPEED for only the cost of paper. Color printing is cost prohibitive for the number of newsletters we print each year (heck, it is pretty much cost prohibitive at any amount unless you are heavily subsidized by ad revenue, which we are not...), so we have gone back to good old black and white printing. Thanks to Donna for all her years of making SPEED fabulous to look at!

Of course you can still read the newsletter in full color online on the NCWFA website. Going forward, if you would like to no longer receive a paper copy of SPEED and just access it online, let me know, so I can remove you from the mailing list.

Rescue Round Up: The Great Rescue Explosion of Spring 2016

After almost ten months of relative silence on the Rescue front, late March began what I am affectionately calling "The Great Rescue Explosion of 2016". Between March 27th and today, we have had eight whippets either placed through NCWFA Rescue, are currently coming into the rescue system, or hovered near rescue but were turfed out to WRAP. This is unprecedented in my memory of rescue, although we have had more dogs come in at one time; all of those were from one place, such as the 12 from the Merced hoarder in 2001. All of these dogs have been surrendered or were at shelters separately, and with one exception, I don't believe any of them are related.

Almost immediately after our meeting, held in Vallejo on March 27th, where I apparently angered the Whippet Gods by mentioning how slow it had been in Rescue, a very nice girl came up to our group looking for a whippet rescue rep. Sydney's mother is the director of Lodi Animal Services and she had just successfully trapped a fawn and white male whippet, which had been running loose in a frontage road area for several days. On April 2nd, I headed up to Sloughhouse to judge and I met up with Sydney and her mom and sister and they handed off "Miles" to me. I drove this incredibly handsome dog down to Oakland to be fostered by Susan and Tom Moore. Starting on the 27th, we had started a social media blitz to attempt to find Miles's owner or breeder, since we all couldn't believe this gorgeous, could be a champion show dog, who had obedience training, had no one out looking for him. Despite the fact that my post on Facebook was shared over a thousand times, and I followed up many leads, we were unable to locate either a breeder or an owner on Miles.

Susan and Tom christened Miles Jacob, and even though he had a disconcerting habit of darting out open doors and heading back towards Lodi, which is possibly why he ended up as a stray in the first place, he fit right in the Moore home, being totally mellow and getting along great with Shadow and Dominic, his new sighthound brothers. After a month of fostering, the Mooress made it official, and this handsome blonde Adonis is holding court at Susan's therapy practice (several of her clients have mentioned they are merely coming weekly for the dog) and in their home.

While I was getting everything organized for Jacob coming into foster care, I was alerted to a young brindle female whippet that was a stray at the Sacramento shelter. Thanks to GFFL for sending two of their volunteers to the shelter to affirm that she was a whippet, not a small greyhound. Since she was a stray, she had to stay at the shelter for five days in order to give her people time to pick her up. And, what fun, this girl was in full bloom season!

Kim Robinson took the lead on this rescue and when she was speaking with the adoption coordinator, Lori mentioned that they had another whippet at the shelter. Whaaaa-t? Yes, there was a fawn male whippet at the shelter, whose info had not yet been posted publically, because he had slightly crunched a cat when he was at large and was in quarantine. So, it looked like we would be picking up two whippets from the Sacramento shelter, if their owners didn't claim them.

On Friday, April 8th, Delia Zarges, picked up the newly spayed brindle bitch and dropped her off at Kim and Rick's. Kim christened this big, strong, race-type girl Xena, Warrior Princess. Unfortunately, Xena and Skylar took an immediate dislike to each other, so this girl needed a new foster home and fast. Duncan and Jan Waldrop rose to the occasion and made arrangements with their cousin, Diane Kelly, a long time dog person, to foster Xena. Charlotte Fielder transported Xena to Diane, after Diane picked up the male whippet at the Sac shelter for us. It was a veritable Whippet Underground Railroad that weekend!

Xena spent a week with Diane, recovering from her spay, and generally winning over Diane to the wonders of whippets. On the negative side, Xena had contracted a bad case of kennel cough while in the shelter, and because she is a giving girl, she gave one of Diane's old toy dog's kc too. After a week with Diane, Xena moved on to another foster home, this time with Kerry and Ola Elenitoba-Johnson in Newark. Kerry and Ola and their two adorable kids have become a fixture at our events over the last six months, as they searched for a whippet for the family. Well, Xena became the foster that stayed and she is now the personal pet of seven-year-old Yenni. Xena has shown that she was aptly named by Kim when she defended her family from a marauding pit bull. She was injured, but is on the mend, and will be seen with her people at future NCWFA performance events, as this girl is fast, fast, fast and loves to run!

Charlotte met up with Diane for the whippet hand off and kept the newly neutered fawn male overnight, meeting up with Rick, who then met up with the new foster home, Club member Barbara Lawson. When she picked up the dog, Charlotte was pretty confident that he and Xena were most likely littermates, as except for color, they are virtually identical. Named Geordie by Barbara, this super sweet guy made himself right at home in San Francisco's Glen Park neighborhood, claiming the couch without missing a beat. And guess what, Geordie is also a foster who stayed, this time with Barbara!

Even though Xena and Geordie's photos also were extensively shared on social media, no owners or breeders were found for this duo either. Weird, huh?

As we were waiting out the week at the shelter for the Sacramento pair, Erin Campbell's former vet tech was visiting the back area of the Peninsula Humane Society, when she saw a brindle and white part-colored whippet male. Being familiar with the breed, she remarked that surely this dog was there for a medical procedure, and was not an actual shelter resident. She was told he had just been surrendered by his family and would be up for adoption the next day. She immediately texted Erin and let her know about this dog. Erin adopted the dog the next day in order to get him out of the shelter. Dash was a two-year-old, very pretty show-type male, and the shelter adoption coordinator told Erin that he was purchased from a breeder at a year, and his family did not have time for him anymore, which is why he ended up at the shelter. Dash's photos and info were shared on social media, but in his case, as all our other shelter kids, there were no hits on the identity of his breeder.

Erin fostered Dash for over a month. He was generally a very nice whippet, only guarding his food & bed around the other dogs. He did have some nice gifts from his brief time in the shelter, including a pretty bad GI illness and a wound on his leg. Luckily he was living with a vet, and thanks to Erin for treating him for both issues. Dash found the perfect forever home with Lara Simmons and family and is currently living the life of Riley with Lara, her husband, and their two beautiful daughters. And even better, no other dogs to have to share with! Special thanks to Jen Haas for driving Dash to his rendezvous with his new family.

Our last rescue in this report was one of Sue Oace and Jan

Ferry's girls. When Sue passed away last year, she left Dua to her and Jan's good friend Sue McNeill. At first Dua got along famously with Sue's other whippets & ridgebacks, but when the oldest whippet in the house passed away, Dua and the remaining whippet, Spice, began to have issues. These issues escalated to a point where the two bitches began to fight seriously. Sue asked us if we could find this eight and half year old former racer a home where she could be an only child. After a few weeks where we stalled out coming up with a suitable home, Dua was matched with Suzanne Feria of Orangevale. While Suzanne has never had a whippet before, she has many years of experience as a dog owner. It looks like a really good fit with Suzanne and sweet Dua. My thanks to Sarah Herrick who was my go-to home check person, meeting with both Suzanne and Lara for us.

As I write this, the Great Whippet Rescue Explosion of 2016 continues! Sue and Mike deHart picked up Henry (now Rusty), an eight-month old male puppy, purchased from a BYB by a family who has several small children and inadequate fencing. Henry's current owners are smart and loving enough to know that this boy needs a more stable, safer home. We also are working on finding a home for a seven year old male, who is Gracie Mae's younger brother. Bolt is being surrendered by his family, who has moved to a farm and can no longer keep him safe. I am sure we will be able to find great homes for Henry and Bolt, but hopefully they will be the last rescues for a good long while around here.

As you can see from reading this article, it really takes a village to do the work of whippet rescue. Deepest thanks to all our members and friends who have helped with all these dogs!

On the Cover - Raine

In early 2005 I was still living in California & working with NCWFA whippet rescue. That Sunday morning it was raining like crazy (a typical Spring in Northern CA.) . I decided to forego email & get some things done: like a morning hike in the rain with my dogs. When we returned I fired up the computer & had over 300 emails from around the country ... "What about the whippet in Oakley, CA? " oops...

I called HALO rescue in Oakley & Joyce Sanderson quickly agreed to my taking the whippet as she only rescued Labs & toy dogs.

On the way to Oakley we had to pull over due to the torrential storm. I asked my husband Duane..." What shall we name him?" he answered " RAINE ".

Once back home with us in Oakland we had a very emaciated & what would prove a very chronically ill dog. Raine was all skin & bones. Giardia, tapeworms, a seizure condition, a significant heart murmur & two of the biggest testicles I had ever seen on a dog his size.

Once over most of the problems we set about to strengthen this little dog. I spent hours running Raine & my then current whippet, Chance, at Dillion Beach. We slogged through the heavy dunes, chased ducks & played ball. The goal was to earn an ASFA FCh title before the end of the year. By November Chance & Raine had coursed a lot. We had driven all the way to Bakersfield chasing the elusive points. By Thanksgiving Raine had a shot at getting the title. We entered the Southern California Turkey Trot. Four days of coursing complete with a Turkey dinner. By the fourth day Raine had earned that title & had come within a half point of winning the entire event.

In ensuing months & years Raine & I would travel everywhere coursing. He was always my co-pilot, sitting in the passenger seat leaning his head on the arm rest & gazing out the window.

We moved to New York State & Raine went on to get his Veteran FCh title with ASFA & earned his Master Courser title twice over with AKC. As late as 2014 he was recognized by the ACE awards.

Raine retired in 2013. He chose the time by staying on the couch early one morning prior to leaving for an event. It was a very big moment for me.

Raine was a combination of heart, desire & drive with really no ability. Angulated legs & a debilitating seizure condition never seemed to faze him. He just kept going. He loved running. And I loved him.

RIP or whatever you want to do my wonderful companion.

Coyote Raine, FCh, VFCh, MC x2 , ACE.

Miss Darcy of Wyndsor ARX NARX OTRM ROM

January 9, 2004 - March 17, 2016

Miss Darcy was small but mighty. She won multiple CWA meets, including the 2005 CWA National Race Meet, and was ORC pointed in tough California competition. She was equally mighty in the whelping box, earning an ROM with her only litter. All six of her offspring finished an ARX and earned NARX points, four were meet winners, two earned an SRA, and two earned points in other racing venues. She was the dam of the amazing The Mighty Bolt of Wyndsor ARX SRA ORC, NOTRA meet winner, undefeated in CWA competition and three-time winner of the CWA National Race Meet. Her puppies have been successful in other areas as well, with five coursing champions in the group, as well as titles earned in obedience, rally, tracking, and barn hunt. Not bad for a little girl who only weighed 28 pounds!

But mostly, she was beautiful and sweet and greatly loved.

She is much missed and will never be forgotten.

Whippet Whispers by the Rover Reporter

All the news that's fit to print—and then some!

While Rover knows all, sometimes she forgets to write it down, so she was remiss in not acknowledging pretty Skye's (Sharron Simmons) back-to-back majors at the Arizona Whippet Specialty weekend in February. Congrats Skye!

The Boss (Charlotte & Martha Fielder) was on a roll in LA in April. He completed his DC with another big major & then went on to win Select & an AOM at the Hound Show specialties. Way to go Boss!

Handsome Cache (Julie Nunes) won his second major in a BIG way—WD at the Hound show in Silverado!

Cute Clark (Donna O'Toole & Guin Borstel) was RWD at the SCWA Specialty show in Silverado!
