Whippet Whispers by the Rover Reporter

"All the news that's fit to print...and then some!"

It has been another great two months on the campaign trail for the NCWFA Crew. We have some great show wins to report and some stellar performance triumphs, as well.

First up, at the Del Monte KC, Abby (Angie Hagen) won Best of Breed and a Group Three. A few weeks later, in WA, Abby did this one better, and won a Specialty Best in Show! Abby is now a Top Ten Whippet! Also, at the WWWW/Hound Specialty weekend, Angela's BBE entry Tyler was RWD and her new puppy Misty was BOW for a five-point major!

Little Kitty (Erin Campbell) finished her championship with a nice major at the Lompoc KC. Way to go Kitty! Also, at the Lompoc KC, vivacious redhead Baillie (Debby Knutson) was BOS for a GCh major. Super job Baillie!

Ever speedy and cute Billie (Lynne Armstrong) won back-to-back RCh points in August. She now has eight points towards her race championship. At the NAWRA/NOTRA Nationals in Washington, Billie, shown below in the #1 jacket, had a Top 20 finish amid the best and brightest of whippet racing. Good job, Billie! Her "little" pal Eddie was a Top 10 Puppy Racer at the Nationals!

At the dog shows in Dixon, puppy Vesper (Erin Campbell) won back-to-back BOBs from the classes, over specials, and on to group placements both days. A star is born? Vesper picked up another point in Grass Valley and is well on the way to her championship at under a year of age!

At the Reno KC, handsome Gibson (Angie Hagen) won a big major. Nico (Rick Ragan & Kim Robinson) was RWD. Precocious Vesper Lynd (Erin Campbell) was BOW to share Gibson's major. Abby (Angie Hagen) was BOB both days and Tally (Justine Kay) was Select on Saturday. Good going, NCWFA-ers!

was Select on Saturday. Good going, NCWFA-ers!

At the Mensona shows, 'earthquake weekend', Tempe (Andrea Meyer) won RWB, Best BBE and won the Hound BBE group. Lou (Alisa McCauley & Lorrie Thomas) was BOS, Baillie (Debby Knutson) won an AOM and Tally (Justine Kay) won Select. Laslo (Libby deMille) won WD and his first point. It was a shaking weekend for the NCWFA!

Rover is happy to hear that Martha Fielder's home, situated right a ground zero in Napa, only sustained broken stuff and a busted water main as a result of the recent earthquake. All reports indicated that the whippets, both real and many of the ceramic variety, and Martha, all made it through the shaking A-OK. The non-ceramic whippets have been holding the banner high this past month. Leo (Martha & Charlotte Fielder) picked up more points at Dixon and was a major reserve in Reno. Monarch, who is one of the Sovereign X Angie puppy boys (Charlotte & Martha), was Best 4-6 Puppy in Show at Mensona!

Rover is nosy, but she sometimes misses things. To be sure your brag is not missed, send your news and brags to Rover @ milescross@gmail.com.

General Membership Meeting, 8/3/2014 Dixon, CA

Members Present: Guin Borstel, Brad Briscoe, Erin Campbell, Patty Clinton, Becky Coulter, Charlotte Fielder, Martha Fielder, Tina Galzignato, Jen Haas, Sarah Herrick, Justine Kay, Debby Knutson, Robert Latuga, Marianne Lu, Ed Odron, MJ Odron, Rick Ragan, Kim Robinson, Jan Waldrop, Duncan Waldrop, Todd Wilhoyte, Donna Wilhoyte, Delia Zarges.

Applicant Present: Denise Sisneroz.

Guests Present: David Kay, Bobby Paust.

The meeting was called to order at 11:05AM by President Brad Briscoe.

A motion was made by Ed Odron to approve the minutes as published in the last issue of SPEED. The motion was seconded by MJ Odron. The motion was approved by the membership present.

Officer's Reports

President's Report: Brad reported that our June lure coursing event went well. The dog who was injured on the field on Sunday is doing well.

Secretary's Report: No report.

Treasurer's Report: Guin reported in Kellee's absence that we are well positioned financially at the moment. She reminded the member present, who had not paid for his trophy donation for the October Specialty to please pay so she can close the books.

Committee Reports

Events: MJ reported that plans are moving along for the October Specialty show. Committee heads from last year have all agreed to reprise their roles, with the exception of Donna Wilhoyte, who has asked to be relieved of her Luncheon coordinator duties. Jen Haas and Debby Knutson volunteered to take over Lunch coordination. Brad will take over the procuring of breakfast goodies, since he is already getting the coffee.

Membership: The Associate memberships of Bethi Carver, JR Gibb, and Denise Sisneroz were approved by the membership present.

Website: Guin has redesigned the NCWFA website and invited all to check out its new look.

Whippetbilia: Marianne reported that she made a few sales at the June Lure Trials and sold a bit more at the race meets.

Lure Coursing: Brad reported on behalf of Russell that the weekend in June lost $200. This year we had our smallest entry ever, only 52 dogs on Sunday. Discussion ensued as to the reasons for the small entry and the money loss. The judges we have been using are a bit over exposed and discussion ensued regarding how to get new judges without spending lots and lots of money to bring them in. The field we have been using in Dixon is becoming overexposed, as well. Other clubs have begun to use the field, which does us no favors. Russell and Brad are actively looking for new fields. Brad discussed the parameters of a good lure trial field (Field size min 4acres. Mostly fenced. Able to have loose dogs on the field. Field rental not over $500 for weekend.) Discussion ensued regarding the promotion of our events via the media (AWC WN) and social media. At this point, we will stay the course with our location for November and tweak things if a member finds a field.

Old Business: Ed reported that he has ordered the logo items and will have them available for pick up at our September meeting.

New Business: We voted on our Specialty Sweepstakes judge for 2015. Becky Coulter, Charlotte Fielder and Bob Paust were elected as tellers. Curtis Freeling will be our 2015 Sweepstakes judge.

Our next meeting will be held at the Sir Francis Drake show in Vallejo on Sunday, September 14th. Charlotte Fielder mentioned that the Mensona KC show in Santa Rosa will have a whippet breeder-judge from Portugal named Gabriela Veiga in 2016 (she will be judging the PPP National Specialty at this show). The Mensona show committee would like us to think of perhaps supporting the whippet entry at this show. We will discuss this at a later meeting since this is two years away. Brags ensued.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:45 AM.

Respectfully submitted,

Guin Borstel, NCWFA Secretary.

BRYCE'S STORY

COUNTER SURFING LEADS TO NSAID TOXICITY

Overdose due to ingestion of Non-steroidal Anti-Inflammatories is one of the most common toxicities that is reported to the Animal Poison Control Center. Everything from simple vomiting and diarrhea, up to gastric ulcers, stomach perforations, severe anemia, seizures and even acute kidney failure can result when a dog ingests more than the recommended dose of NSAIDs. With the rise in popularity of Rimadyl, Deramaxx, and other NSAIDs for dog use for post-surgical and chronic pain, incidences of poisoning and overdose are also on the increase. Veterinary dispensing of chewable forms of these drugs, which are strongly flavored with liver to make them more palatable, coupled with the whippet's counter-surfing proclivities, make NSAIDs left out on the counter and a curious and hungry whippet a dangerous combination.

Bryce, a handsome twelve year old male whippet, owned by Todd and Donna Wilhoyte, had a routine dental cleaning with several tooth extractions. His daughter, Lucy, also had a cleaning at the same time. Their vet prescribed 5 days of chewable Rimadyl for post-extraction pain. The day after the surgery, Todd medicated the pair before he left for work, pushing the bottle of Rimadyl to the center of the kitchen island, not thinking that the whippets would be able to reach it. The strong liver smell of the drug proved too tempting and one of the dogs got the bottle off the island, probably just moments after Todd left. When Donna came home from work that evening, she saw the empty bottle, slightly chewed, in the middle of a pile of bread wrappers and other yummy things pulled down from the island. Donna recognized that this was a medical emergency, she immediately called the vet, piled both whippets into the car (since she did not know which one actually ate the pills) and off to the vet's office the trio went.

Once at the vet's both Bryce and Lucy were given a drug to induce vomiting, to see if any of the drug was left in their stomachs. This would help the vet to know who ingested the drug, and approximately when the ingestion occurred. Once the vomitus was examined it was quickly ascertained that Bryce alone had the counter surfing party, since Lucy had an empty stomach, and Bryce's stomach was full of bread and other goodies. No pill fragments were found, meaning that the pills had probably been eaten early that morning. Bryce probably ate four days worth of Rimadyl (for two dogs) by himself, which is a huge overdose, and one almost sure to cause either gastric ulcers or kidney damage. To be on the safe side, since Lucy may have eaten a pill or three, both dogs were given activated charcoal, to "soak up" any drug not yet absorbed in the intestines, and placed on an IV drip, to flush the system.

The biggest immediate concern with NSAID overdose in the amount Bryce had eaten is kidney damage, so he was hospitalized and placed on an IV drip for several days. Lucy got to go home, once it was ascertained that she hadn't eaten any of the pills. Bryce had to have serial blood and urine tests, checking his renal vital signs, and surprisingly, his blood work was pretty good, considering all the drug he had eaten. As an older dog, Bryce was even more in danger of kidney complications than a young dog.

Once three days had passed from ingestion, and Bryce exhibited no signs of kidney damage, he was sent home on a strict, bland diet, since now gastric complications became the big concern. NSAID overdoses can cause gastric ulcers and perforations. It was pretty obvious that Bryce had some damage to his stomach, because this usual chow hound had no interest in food. Donna and Todd had to monitor him closely for any vomiting and diarrhea, and be especially vigilant for any blood in the stool, as this would be a signal of serious gastrointestinal issues. It took Bryce over a week to really begin to eat again, and as a result he lost over five pounds. Poor Bryce looked like a rack of bones.

It took over a month for Bryce's stomach to recover, and several months later, he ended up with a serious kidney infection, probably due to residual damage. As of this writing, Bryce's is doing well, but it has been a long (and expensive) road to recovery. Bryce's family would like to remind all whippet owners to store all NSAIDs, especially the super-tempting chewable version, where their dogs cannot get at them, and to remember that a counter is not an obstacle to a determined whippet. Bryce does not want any of his whippet friends to have to go through what he went through!

RESCUE ROUND-UP

Your NCWFA Rescue Team had a relaxing summer. After a busy spring, with several whippets in the system and the ever present specter of the Redding irresponsible breeder trifecta hanging over our heads, we only had two dogs to place over the summer. We did, however facilitate several more long time fanciers to find whippet companions. Remember that your Rescue Team has many pre-screened, wonderful, experienced whippet homes just waiting for your returned adults or retired show and performance dogs. Since true rescues are so rare in our breed, many of these great folks are more than happy to provide a perfect forever home to the well bred "non-rescue".

The first whippet we placed over the summer was Kindred. Kindred was a handsome brindle race bred guy, whose owner, a former NCWFA member, had to give him up due to moving into senior housing. Due to dog limits at her place of residence, she could only keep her two oldest whippets, and had to find homes for her three younger ones. She found placements for the two bitches on her own, but NCWFA Rescue stepped in to place Kindred. Kindred was a nice dog, used to living in a pack, that was still recovering from ACL surgery. He needed a quiet home who was willing to continue with his therapy and not expect too much activity out of him, since he was essentially permanently lame.

Brad happened to speak by phone with a woman in El Sobrante who had lost her older greyhound and was looking for a smaller pet. Linda and her husband had lots of dog experience. They met Kindred and it was love at first sight. Their other greyhound may be the husband's dog, but Kindred is Linda's bestest buddy!

I got a phone call from Candy Gaiser, a dog trainer and whippet owner in Vacaville. A dog trainer friend of hers named Nancy had called and mentioned that her landscaper had seen her own whippet and told her that his father, who lived in Woodland, had "one of those dogs" and did she want another one, because the whippet kept jumping the fence and hunting and he was kept tied out in the yard? Nancy immediately went to go and see the whippet, who turned out to be a nine-month-old brindle male puppy, full of energy. Nancy took the dog but having several seniors of her own, was hoping to see if Res cue could help find him a permanent home. "Tigre" was a delightful, energetic, goofy puppy, obviously in need of training and attention. He was very good while at Nancy's (she kept him and had him neutered and vetted while we looked for the perfect home), and I think if he stayed with her for a day longer, he would have never left, old dogs and chickens notwithstanding.

I had to put my thinking cap on for a good home for Tigre. Nancy kept stressing how smart and biddable he was and how she thought he would do well as an agility or obedience whippet. We had many good applicants who would be interested in a puppy, but I felt that this guy was special and therefore needed a special home. Finally it hit me; Club member Patti Clinton had lost her oldest dog Valentine and was looking for another to add to her pack. She had expressed interest in an older male, but I really thought that Tigre was a slam dunk for her household. She submitted to my gentle arm twisting and drove from Sacramento to Davis to visit the puppy. I kept telling her she didn't have to take him, since I knew lots of our applicants would want him. The next thing I heard Patti was home with Tigre!

Now christened Breeze, this super puppy is already in obedience training and as a special bonus, he has succeeded in bringing shy former rescue Katie out of her shell. Katie now has her own little brother to beat up and she has never been happier!

The Rescue Team loves a happy ending!
