The Rover Reporter

It has been an unusual year in many respects for whippet activities, but the NCWFA Gang has gotten out where they could this Fall & won!

Team Kimera done good at the shows in Reno in Sepetember, the AWC Western Specialty in October & the Corning shows in November. Pretty Ella [Erin Campbell & Che Rivera] was awarded both her majors in a smattering of shows this Fall. Her brother Izzy [Charlotte Fielder] won both of his majors up in Reno. “Wild Child” Yoshi [Che Rivera & Audrey Boyer] was WD at the Western for his first major & then won a few more points in Corning. Daddy Dog Disco [Che & Audrey] won a Group 3 & 4 & ended up as the #10 OH Series Whippet for 2020. Way to go Team!

The lovely Dee Dee [Susan Baiata & Dave Cunha] finished her show championship, with all major wins, in September!

When Rover saw Jean Balint at the sprint practice in November, she gave us this paper from Solano College, acknowledging our Club donation we made after they were such gracious hosts for the 2019 CWA Nationals.

Dear Jean,

On behalf of the Governing Board, students, faculty, and staff of Solano Community College, please accept our appreciation of your generous check donation of $500.00.

Donations such as this serve to enhance the positive learning experience of our students, and we greatly appreciate your interest in Solano Community College.

Sincerely,

Jen, we are so sorry for your loss!

Nigel leaves an indelible impression as a fierce competitor on the field, who along with his pal & wingwoman Gracie Mae, attended just about every meeting, show, race meet, lure trial & fun event held by the NCWFA over the last ten years.

I think all of us have a Nigel story; 'adjusting' Disco's ear before the San Jose show, strolling over the finish line in the last race at the CWA National to capture the Turtle, modeling his many coats & collars, tooling around in his cart...

Nigel, we will miss you Buddy!
